The important objects of this excellent and universal Charity are to stop the ravages of that scourge of the human race, that desolator of mankind, the Smallpox, which at this time not only rages in many districts of the Country, but has broken out in various parts of this vast Metropolis, destroying many of its victims, from the backwardness of Parents in adopting the preventive, and thus scattering the seeds of contagion and death throughout the Kingdom.

[Please turn over.]

Of the solid excellence and universal benefit rendered to the community at large by this Institution, the Committee feel it impossible by language to convey an adequate idea. If they advert to the condition of the numerous poor to whom its compassion is extended, the many thousands, in every Country in the World, it has already been the means of rescuing from a premature death, the protection afforded by its benign means to the Army and Navy in every part of the World; hard, indeed, and callous must that heart be, which, having the means, would refuse it support.

It appears that the Cases of Vaccination of the Society in the Metropolis, amount to	45,936
From different parts of the Empire	425,058
The number of Applicants for Vaccine Ichor, amount to	60,905
Charges supplied	415,430

The returns of the numbers inoculated, which have been made to the Society from co-operators in the cause of Vaccination, in different parts of the Empire, amount to upwards of Four Hundred and Fifty Thousand, and, from different parts of the World, to considerably upwards of Two Millions.

The Reports addressed to the Society from other Countries, for Extracts of, see the Pamphlet, show that the life-preserving cause of Vaccination is now extended to every land. The simple Indians in their forests, the Musselmen, with all their prejudices, and the Heathens with all their superstitious antipathies learn to appreciate and adopt the practice which saves them from sufferings, disfiguration, and death.

I am directed, by the Board of Managers of the ROYAL JENNERIAN SOCIETY, to address to you the enclosed Pamphlet of the Institution, established in 1803, and supported by voluntary contribution, in the hope that you will have the liberality to contribute to the Funds of the great life-saving Charity. If happily it should be your pleasure to unite with the Members, the Agent, will have the honour to wait on you. He is furnished with receipts, signed by the Sub-Treasurer and also by the Collector, which you will please consider his full authority for his taking charge of whatever you may have the goodness to contribnte to the Funds of the great univ ersal philanthropic life-preserving Institution.

On behalf of the Managers,

I have the Honour to be, very respectfully,

Sir

Your most obedient and very humble Servant,

Secretary.

The Office,

For Supplying Vaccine Matter, put up so as to be efficient for twelve Months, for the Shipping, the Colonies, and every part of the habitable Globe, supplied to all applicants, free of expense, No. 52, Burr Street, East Smithfield.

London, Febry - 1828.

Subscribers to this Institution, residing in the Country, the Colonies, or in any other part of the World, have transmitted to them, with their Report annually, a quantity of fresh active Cowpock Virus, free of expense.

P.S. Every Inquiry respecting the Affairs of the Institution, as well Payments as Remittances, to be addressed to the Sub Treasurer, Mr. JOHNSTONE, 52, Burr Street, Tower Hill, London, will meet with immediate attention. The Applications for Cowpock Matter, by Letter to DR. WALKER, Bond Court, Walbrook, London, supplied, as usual, by return of Post; or if for Shipping, the Colonies, or Parts Abroad, to Mr. Johnstone as above.
